Painting In Florence
May 31st - June 29th

INFORMATIONAL MEETING
Thursday, January 28, 4:30
Photography Classroom, 2nd Floor, Harder Hall

Alfred University in affiliation with Santa Reparata International School of Art is offering a four-week painting course in the heart of Florence, Italy. Stephanie McMahon, Assistant Professor of Painting and Drawing at the School of Art & Design at Alfred University will lead the group.

CRN: ART 300 - Painting In Florence
May 31 - June 29, 2010 (Summer Session 1 - 2, 4 weeks)
4 credit hours (elective or additional studio only) This will count as elective or junior studio credit.
Tuition & fees: $4,500 includes tuition, studio fees, housing, and some scheduled tours.
An additional $250 refundable housing security deposit is required by Santa Reparata.
Student fee: $72
Students will be responsible for airline ticket cost (approximately $1,250), plus their meals.

Students will discover the city of Florence through fieldtrips and assignments that explore the artwork, architecture, landscape and culture of Florence and the surrounding areas. Painting on location and in the studio, students will create a body of work drawing on their travels, observations and experiences. Assignments will focus on expanding conceptual and technical abilities and will be augmented by discussions, lectures and critiques. Opportunities for additional travel within Italy will be available.

Credits are awarded by the School of Art & Design at Alfred University, a NASAD accredited Institution.