Dreams to Reality
Live and in Person
Monday, November 3rd, 4:30 p.m. at the WLC

How do you get a job, pay off debt, and find a career that leaves time for a personal life?

“My husband and I have each compromised over the years - sometimes my career takes priority, sometimes his does. Dual careers are challenging - but manageable!”

Finance Manager, Training
Corning Inc.
Class of ‘88

“I left an exciting but very demanding position to take on a role that allowed me to spend more time with my family.”

Supply Chain Manager
Welch Allyn
Class of ‘92

“I’ve seen first-hand the effect that a lifetime of under-employment and lower pay can have on women as they get older.”

Medical Students for Choice
Outreach Manager
Class of ‘01

“I’m a Presbyterian minister, and my husband is a nurse. We don’t always fit people’s expectations, but we’re doing what we love.”

Pastor of Robinson Memorial Presbyterian Church
Syracuse, NY
Class of ’69
