FOSTER LAKE, INC.

Welcome,
Foster Lake is a beautiful 25-acre man-made lake located two miles Southwest of Alfred, New York. The lake was created by Eddy Foster in 1950 and was owned by the Foster family until 2003. The lake is a wonderful place for fishing, canoeing, sailing, walking, picnicking, and camping. It is open to Alfred University faculty, staff, and students for educational use with written permission, and for recreational use to those who purchase a seasonal access pass good for the calendar year. Note: See the Foster Lake web page for Foster Lake Usage Request Policy and Form. Swimming is allowed seasonally and only when life guards are on duty.

Anyone can purchase an access pass!

Boating  A Pass holder may store a boat at the lake during the summer. Only non-motorized craft are allowed. Access Pass holders must register and supply their own boat.

Walking  There is a beautiful one mile nature trail around the lake. A wide variety of trees, flowers, and ferns can be seen. Over 150 species of birds have been identified on the property.

Camping  We have two primitive campsites set back from the lake. These sites are usually available. Reservations are required.

Fishing  The lake is open to all access pass holders for fishing throughout the year. The most plentiful fish are bass. All DEC regulations apply.

Swimming  Lifeguards are on duty (weather/water quality permitting) from 11 am to 7 pm June 19-Aug 14.

Picnicking  We have picnic tables and barbecue grills. There is also a large pavilion that provides shelter from the rain. The pavilion is available to groups or pass holders who make an advance reservation and have read and completed the Foster Lake usage request policy and form available on the Foster Lake web page.
