Ann’s House is LEED Certified!

Living Learning Component:
Ann’s House is registered with the U.S. Green Building Council. It was LEED Certified (leadership in Energy and Environmental Design with a silver certificate upon opening in August 2009.

Location:
To the right of Joel’s House snuggled on Pine Hill, Ann’s house offers peace and serenity from the rest of campus.

Lay-out:
- 48 beds
- 2 single rooms share a bathroom
- Large kitchen and dining room
- Lounges on each floor with flat screen TVs
- Covered recycling area
- Noon: 1-3pm
- Lounge
- Game room
- Study room
- Laundry facility

Requirements:
- Juniors and Seniors only
- Must sign up through Room Selection
  - Sign up in pairs
  - Can be co-ed

More questions? Please contact:
Office of Residence Life
607-871-2186
residencelife@alfred.edu

The energy-efficient house features:
- Solar panels to provide at least 8% of electricity used
- High-efficiency heating system
- Low VOC (volatile organic compound) flooring, caulking and paint
- Low-e, thermopane windows
- Soy-based foam insulation
- LED lighting (and TVs!)
- Heat-recovery exhaust system
- Regionally grown building materials
- Natural stone and cement composite siding

Ann’s House was built in honor of Joel (’61), H (’06) and Anne Moskowitz.