Global Alfred

Living Learning Component:
Global Alfred provides an opportunity for American students to interact with international students in a dynamic multicultural setting. It affords a unique cross-cultural living situation that increases a student’s knowledge about major current events, basic cultural information, and unique practices from around the world. Students experience a wider diversity within their social network and learn about themselves in a larger cultural context.

Location:
9 Sayles
On the south side of campus, Global Alfred fringes the outskirts of campus. However, conveniently located near Herrick Library, Alumni Hall, Powell Campus Center, the apartments and the Wellness Center make it easily accessible to campus life.

Layout:
- 1 double
- 12 singles
- Living room
- Dining room with 2 tables
- Laundry room
- Large kitchen
  - 2 refrigerators
  - Plenty of counter and cupboard space
- Full bathrooms
- Game room with ping pong
- Front porch
- Back breezeway
- Upstairs sun room

Requirements:
- Must be 21 years of age or older

Events:
- Sunday dinners that show case cultures of residents living in the house.

Within the countries represented in the house, students will have an opportunity to increase their knowledge of a language other than their own and expand their awareness of the languages spoken in the world.

Global Alfred residents have come from all over the globe:
- Australia
- Asia
- Denmark
- Italy
- France
- Spain
- England

The house was acquired and renovated by the University in 2005.

More questions? Please contact:
Office of Residence Life
607-871-2186
residencelife@alfred.edu