Alfred University
Tennis Skills

Dates: Monday—Friday, July 20-24, 2015
Time: 1:00 - 3:30 PM.
Location: ALFRED UNIVERSITY, Tennis Courts
Cost: $150
Ages: This camp is for boys and girls entering grades 7-12

Skill Level: Beginners are welcome. Training at the beginner through advanced levels will be provided.

Camp Director: Mr. Dave Brady, Alfred-Almond Tennis Coach

Camp Features:
- Fundamental instruction in stroke technique, footwork and court strategy
- Technique training including serve, forehand, backhand and volley
- A great opportunity for kids to have fun as they improve their stroke production and enhance their understanding of the game of tennis

What to Bring: Campers should bring their own tennis racquets, if they have them, and something to drink (water, Gatorade, etc.).

What to Wear: Campers should wear light, loose, comfortable clothing and good quality sneakers.

How to Register: To register, please visit our website at: http://www.alfred.edu/summer/camps/tennis.cfm to complete the online application and payment information no later than July 10.

Questions? Call 607-871-2612 or email summerpro@alfred.edu.

www.alfred.edu/summer/camps/tennis.cfm