

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT
CRIMINAL JUSTICE STUDIES BACHELOR DEGREE COMPLETION PROGRAM BETWEEN
CORNING COMMUNITY COLLEGE AND ALFRED UNIVERSITY

PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

This document establishes a transfer articulation agreement between Corning Community College and Alfred University. Its purpose is to afford students the opportunity to pre-plan their college careers, and to facilitate the transfer process from Corning Community College to the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree program in Criminal Justice Studies at Alfred University.

GENERAL GUARANTEE OF ADMISSION AND STANDING

Students are guaranteed admission into the B.A in Criminal Justice Studies program at Alfred University, and also guaranteed full junior status, if they meet the following criteria.

- Graduate from Corning Community College with the Associate in Science (A.S.) degree;
- Have achieved a minimum overall grade point average of 2.0.
- Have achieved a minimum grade of C in any courses applied to the major.

GENERAL GUARANTEE OF OPPORTUNITY TO GRADUATE

Students who graduate from Corning Community College having taken a minimum of 63 credits from courses listed in Appendix A of this agreement are guaranteed the opportunity to earn the bachelor's degree with 61 credits of normal coursework through Alfred University.

TRANSFER OF COURSES FROM CORNING COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Alfred University will accept all credits required for the Corning Community College Associate in Science degree, including pre-requisite courses in Criminal Justice from Appendix A, in transfer, toward fulfillment of requirements for the bachelor's degree. The minimum number of credits that must be taken through the Alfred University degree completion program in Criminal Justice Studies must result in a minimum total of 124 credits completed through Corning Community College and Alfred University. Alfred University graduation requirements for this program stipulate that a portion of these credits, to be determined by Alfred University, must be completed on the Alfred University campus. Corning Community College graduates that take additional courses through Corning Community College to fulfill the prerequisites for the Alfred University degree completion program, may transfer additional credits over and above the number required for the AA or AS degree up to the Alfred University limit of 75 total transfer credits. But the minimum number of credits to be completed at Alfred University must result in a total of at least 124 credits.

PROMOTION OF AGREEMENT

Both parties have the right to use this agreement and the names of Corning Community College and Alfred University in all promotional activities including college catalogs and recruitment or advisement activities.

PROVISION FOR CHANGES IN POLICIES OR CURRICULA

Changes in curricula by either party should be communicated in writing to the other party.
Proposed changes in policies by either party should be communicated in writing to the other party.

PROVISION FOR CANCELLATION

Either party may independently cancel this agreement by notifying the other party in writing no less than two years before the intended date of cancellation.
