CODE OF CONDUCT ALFRED UNIVERSITY SUMMER HOUSING

The following are the rules and regulations for the Summer Housing Program at Alfred University. Everyone residing in University housing is expected to abide by the following guidelines. Violations will be dealt with by formal judicial action, with the possibility of being removed from Housing and/ or the program.

1. Quiet hours are in effect every night from 11 PM until 8 AM. This means noise should be kept to a minimum.
2. Residents are responsible for the furniture in their assigned location. Furniture must remain in its assigned location.
3. Residents are expected to return their room to the original condition upon checkout from University housing. There will be an hourly labor charge ($25) billed to the residents for housekeeping necessary to return to that condition.
4. Consumption or possession of alcohol is not allowed in University housing by persons under the legal age of 21. Any violations of State or Federal laws will also be subject to judicial action.
5. Use, possession, or sale of any illegal substance is prohibited.
6. All University housing facilities are non-smoking. You MUST be 25' from any University building to smoke.
7. Pets are STRICTLY PROHIBITED in any University housing facility (corridor-style halls, suites, apartments or special interest houses (except for service animals). If you have a service animal, you MUST provide the Office of Residence Life with the required documentation and follow the policy expectations (contact the Office of Residence Life with any questions – 607-871-2186).
8. The rental charge includes the use of heat, lights, water, cable, internet, laundry and necessary furniture.
9. It is understood and agreed that Alfred University will bill the occupants of a room for all breakage, damages (excepting ordinary wear and tear) and loss of assigned University property. Furthermore, it is understood that said room must be kept in reasonable condition throughout the time period you are here and returned to its original physical condition at the end of each term. The University reserves the right to conduct periodic health and safety inspections of student rooms to ensure cleanliness standards are met.
10. The University reserves the right to assess residents in the event of general damage to or theft from the residence facilities.
11. The University reserves the right for University employees to enter any residence, after reasonable attempt to notify the occupant, for the inspection of the University's physical facilities and furnishings for the purpose of repair and maintenance. It further reserves the right of room entry for other administrative personnel in emergency situations and after reasonable attempt to notify the student, to fulfill supervisory responsibilities.
12. The Office of Residence Life makes all room assignments. The University reserves the right to change room assignments during the period of your stay should there be deemed necessity.
13. The University is not responsible for students' personal property.
14. Assignments to all housing facilities are made without reference to race, religion, or national origin.
15. There is NO STORAGE of personal property between Summer Term and the opening of the residence halls for Fall 2016. All personal items must be removed at the end of your Summer Term Housing Contract.
16. Each student assigned to live in on-campus housing (residence halls, suites, apartments and houses) will receive a room key. Students living in a suite or traditional corridor style hall will also receive a FOB to gain entrance into their residence hall. This key and FOB are the property of the University and may not be duplicated, exchanged with, or given to another person. Students are expected to keep their keys with them at all times, and expected to always lock their room doors when they are not present. The room key will open the student room and, in the case of buildings without electronic access, main outside door of the residence hall, suite or apartment. In buildings with electronic access, the FOB will open the main residence hall door and student key will only open their residence hall room door. Residence Hall keys and FOBs must be returned to the Office of Residence Life upon check out of any room. Failure to do so will result in a lock change for that room and a fee assessed for that change

Anyone found in violation of any of the above stated rules and regulations will be subject to eviction of housing through the Office of Residence Life.

REQUIRED: Please sign and date below and return to the Office of Residence Life to indicate that you have read the Code of Conduct above, understand its terms and conditions, and agree to abide by it.
