DESCRIPTION OF AWARDS FOR STUDENTS IN THE SCHOOL OF GRADUATE AND CONTINUING STUDIES

Ted Bernstein Award

The Ted Bernstein Award is a long-standing award sponsored by the New York Association of School Psychologists given to the outstanding graduate student in School Psychology as nominated by the program faculty. The award is in memory of the late Theodore Bernstein, a school psychologist and one of the founding members of NYASP. The award includes a year's membership to the organization and registration for the annual state conference.

The Jerry Brody Award for Excellence in College Student Development

This award honors Jerry Brody, former Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students at Alfred University. Jerry mentored and inspired countless undergraduate students to succeed in their professions and to leverage their co-curricular leadership into leadership after graduation. The award is designed to recognize a student in the College Student Development program who has consistently demonstrated excellence in both the academic and applied aspects of developing the competencies required of educators in the student affairs profession.

The James F. Dougherty Award for Excellence in Professional Counseling

This award honors Dr. James F. Dougherty, Executive Director of the Center for Integrated Teacher Education (CITE), Alfred University's partner for graduate programs offered downstate. The Dougherty Award recognizes counseling students who consistently demonstrate excellence and a high level of professionalism in both the academic and applied aspects of developing a professional counselor identity.

The Family Foundation Award for Service to Children and Families

This award is sponsored by The Family Foundation, Inc., whose mission is to provide educational, counseling and charitable support to individuals, families and organizations. The award recognizes a counseling student who demonstrates exceptional dedication and skill in working with children and families.

The David M. Kaplan Award for Outstanding Leadership in Professional Counseling

This award honors Alfred University alumnus Dr. David M. Kaplan, former director of Alfred's Graduate program in Counseling, past president and former Chief Professional Officer of The American Counseling Association. Dr. Kaplan is an enthusiastic leader and advocate for the growth and sustainability of professional counseling. This award is designed to recognize a Counseling student and Chi Sigma Iota chapter member who has demonstrated exceptional leadership potential and commitment towards advancing the profession of counseling.

The Lea R. Powell Honors Award

This award was established in honor of Lea R. Powell in recognition of her steadfast personal commitment to enhancing the lives of children and families through her support of the Alfred University Programs in School Psychology. The award is presented to a doctoral student in School Psychology for outstanding achievement in research, teaching, clinical practice, and/or service to the program, the university, or the community.

DESCRIPTION OF AWARDS FOR STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

AU Libraries Community Impact Award

This award acknowledges and celebrates undergraduate or graduate students who have demonstrated exemplary leadership in promoting the Libraries' values on campus and in the community with clear and positive impacts as the result of these efforts. Some of the Libraries' core values are a commitment to anti-racism and anti-oppression, support for intellectual and cultural diversity, the free and open pursuit of knowledge, and a passion for sustainability. As part of an ongoing dedication to diversity, equity, inclusion and accessibility, the Alfred University Libraries seek to empower students to explore diversity issues, expand scholarly conversations beyond the historically dominant voices and perspectives, and inspire others to advance social justice.

AU Libraries Outstanding Researcher Award

This award recognizes student researchers at the undergraduate and graduate level who have demonstrated excellence, innovation, and an understanding of information literacy and the research process as part of an original course-related research project, in any format or medium including creative work, which utilizes AU Libraries collections, resources, and services.

Alfred Research Grants for Undergraduate Students

Alfred Research Grants for Undergraduate Students fund research projects conducted by students from across the University and their faculty sponsors. Projects are funded after rigorous review of proposals written by the students. Results are presented publicly.

Alpha Kappa Omicron Achievement Award

This award is given to an Alfred University woman during her sophomore year of study who has demonstrated excellence in personal academic leadership. Based on the idea that leadership begins first with a personal commitment to excellence, this award honors the high standards of scholastic performance.

Alpha Kappa Omicron Social Change Leadership Award

This award is given to an Alfred University woman during her junior year of study for her superior efforts at creating change-for-the-good of the AU community. This award recognizes the recipient for her work toward honoring individual values of integrity, commitment and congruence, group values of collaboration, civility, and common purpose, and the community value of citizenship. An emphasis is placed on active, authentic service-based leadership which creates sustainable change.

Award for Excellence in Athletic Training

This award is presented by the faculty to a graduating senior who has shown excellence in the field of Athletic Training as demonstrated through academic and clinical experiences, and who shows exceptional promise for future success in the field.

Award for Excellence in Psychology

This award is presented to a graduating senior(s) who has shown excellence and promise in the field of Psychology, as judged by the faculty.

Award for Outstanding Communication Studies Senior

This award is presented to a graduating senior demonstrating academic excellence and promise in the field of Communication Studies.

Ralph E. Bennett and Judith C. Leondar Scholarship

Established by and in recognition of the late Judith C. Leondar, '52, chemist, and in memory of her late husband, Ralph E. Bennett, Ph.D., botanist and microbiologist, this award is presented to an outstanding student with a major in chemistry or biology and a high academic record.

Richard V. Bergren Award

The Bergren Award is presented to the student in the Division of Human Studies who has done the most outstanding work in the disciplines of history, philosophy and/or religion. The award is a subscription to an academic journal or a book. A student is selected by nomination by division faculty members and election by the entire division. The award is presented from funds given in memory of Dr. Richard V. Bergren.

June Brown Award for Excellence in Library Service

This award was created to honor June E. Brown, University Librarian Emerita. June Brown was a vital presence at Herrick Memorial Library for over two decades. She heightened campus awareness of the importance of libraries and expanded service to the Alfred University community. The award is given to seniors who have worked for the Alfred University Libraries at either Samuel R. Scholes Library of Ceramics or Herrick Memorial Library for at least two years, have a minimum GPA of 3.0, and have demonstrated exceptional performance and a commitment to the ideals June exemplified.

H.O. Burdick, Hannah Shaw Burdick, Kenneth H. Burdick, and Carol Burdick Scholarship

This scholarship, established by former students, friends and family members, honors a father, mother, son and daughter. Professor Burdick led the biology department from 1931 to 1963 and started the nursing school. Mrs. Burdick edited his research papers and taught English 101. Their son, Kenneth, studied at AU and later served two years as the University physician. Carol “C.B.” Burdick was a naturalist, poet, pianist and longtime instructor in English at the University. All four loved learning, students and Alfred University.

Ed & Carole Coll Scholarship

The Ed and Carole Coll Scholarship is used to provide scholarships for need and worthy students who meet all the normal admissions and academic requirement of Alfred University

Communication Studies Leadership Award

This award is presented to a Communication Studies student with outstanding leadership vision and accomplishments.

Diversity Leadership Award

The Diversity Leadership Award is presented to a student demonstrating outstanding leadership abilities through offices held in various clubs and organizations, and their participation in cultural development and programming. They also portray themselves as positive role models, are highly motivated achievers in both academic and professional pursuits, and have displayed the qualities that will lead them to success in all their future endeavors.

The Robert C. Double Sr., '53 Family Memorial Fund

The Double Family Awards recognize one graduating senior in Education who has a focus in special education, and one graduating senior from the School of Business who has a focus in economics. The Double Awards go to students who exhibit the most enthusiasm and effort in their studies and in their program.

The Marguerite Doyle Excellence in Political Science Award

This award is given to a graduating senior in the political science major judged by the political science faculty best to exemplify achievement, industry, and interest in the study of politics.

Eastern College Athletic Conference Merit Medal Award

This medal is awarded by the Eastern College Athletic Conference to a senior female and male student for outstanding athletic ability.

Education Award

This award honors seniors majoring in early childhood/childhood education who have demonstrated superior academic achievement and possess the leadership qualities which indicate a strong potential for success in the teaching profession.

Excellence in Anthropology Award

This award goes to the student whose engagement with anthropological perspectives has shown the widest-ranging understanding of how we are all profoundly shaped by learned cultural constructs. This senior has navigated successfully the liminal zone of the Alfredian four-year rite of passage and demonstrated excellence in anthropology while doing so.

Excellence in Criminal Justice Studies Award

This award is given to a graduating student who has maintained excellent scholarship and has demonstrated leadership when involved in extracurricular activities while pursuing a degree in Criminal Justice Studies.

Mary Wager Fisher Literary Prize

These prizes are awarded for excellence in creative and critical writing.

Excellence in Global Studies Award

This award is given to an outstanding Global Studies major or minor whose scholarship serves as an example to others.

Fred H. Gertz Award

The Fred H. Gertz Award for Excellence in Writing was established through the generosity of alumni and friends in recognition of Dr. Gertz's teaching of clear and cogent writing to generations of students and his tireless devotion to the University.

Health Professions Scholarships

Alfred University awards the Health Professions Scholarships to students who plan to enter professional studies in one of the health professions upon completion of their undergraduate programs. The awards are made primarily on the basis of merit and are open to first-year, sophomore and junior students.

Hitchcock Award for Geology and Related Sciences

This award, established in memory of Raymond O. Hitchcock, M.D., is presented to one or more graduating seniors majoring in geology or related sciences (biology, chemistry, ceramic engineering, and physics) judged to have achieved a high degree of attainment during their undergraduate programs at Alfred.

The Sharon Hoover Fiat Lux Fund

This fund honors Dr. Sharon Hoover who advised the Fiat Lux for fifteen years. This award is designed to support those activities that have enriched, promoted, and sustained the vision of the independent student-run newspaper.

Gifford Hopkins Writing Prize

The Gifford Hopkins Writing Prize is awarded to the student whose writing exhibits those qualities Gifford Hopkins most valued: an unpretentious, direct expression of compassion and integrity.

The David M. Leach Award

The David M. Leach Award, reflecting the character of a former professor of history and dean of the Liberal Arts College, is given to a sophomore or junior history major based on outstanding scholarship, intellectual independence, responsibility, and integrity.

Hal W. Metzger Award in Astronomy

This award is given for accomplishment in the study of astronomy by the astronomy faculty. This award honors Hal W. Metzger who was a participant in the establishment of the Alfred University Observatory.

Modern Languages Culture Award

This award is given to the student who has contributed the most to cultural programs, including foreign language club activities.

The Muriel Strong Morley and Franklin Morley Award

This award is presented to two outstanding athletes, one woman and one man, who are highly involved in campus activities. It was established by the Morley family in honor of Muriel Strong Morley '43 and Dr. Franklin Morley '42. Each earned academic distinction and achieved distinguished careers as educators, and they enjoyed success in athletic pursuits as well. Muriel served as president of the AU Women's Athletics Governing Board, participated in tennis, badminton, and volleyball, and established a new record in 1943 for total athletic points earned over a four-year period. Franklin participated in track & field and was the top miler on the team in 1942.

The Diana Mossip Memorial Scholarship

The Diana Mossip Memorial Scholarship was created through the generosity of Diana's family and friends as a tribute to her ideals and, most particularly, her commitment to community service. It is awarded to a sophomore, junior or senior pursuing a career in veterinary, dental or human medicine who shows Diana's passion for service.

The W. Varick Nevins III and Lillian Texiere Nevins Award

Varick Nevins '32 and Lillian Texiere Nevins '37 spent their entire adult lives in Alfred. Varick was a member of the mathematics faculty from 1937 until his death in 1967. Lil served the University, its students and the community in a great many ways until her death in 1985.

This award, which honors both of them, recognizes the students who have demonstrated the greatest achievement in the study of mathematics.

Alan L. Ponyman Memorial Award

The Alan L. Ponyman Memorial Award was established in cooperation with Mrs. Karen Ponyman Matles in memory of her husband, a graduate of the class of 1963. It is presented annually to a graduating senior planning to study law.

The Reynolds Prize for Achievement in Mathematics

Created with a generous bequest from Lester '28 and Dorothy Reynolds, the Reynolds Prize is awarded to the student(s) who demonstrates the greatest overall achievement in mathematics. Lester Eugene Reynolds graduated from AU with a degree in mathematics, chemistry and physics; served in the Navy V-5 Program, teaching Naval Cadets; and was a 20-year member of the Alfred State College faculty. Dorothy was a welder, a staff sergeant in the U.S. Air Force during World War II and the Korean War, and took courses in medical technology at AU.

The Andrew M. Rossington Scholarship

This scholarship established by David and Angela Rossington in loving memory of their son Andrew Michael Rossington, is presented to a senior who has demonstrated exceptional promise of becoming an outstanding teacher in the public school system.

The Daniel B. Sass Prize

The Daniel B. Sass Prize for Excellence in Geology was established in recognition of his humanity and inspiration to generations of students under his tutelage. The prize is awarded annually to a graduating senior.

The Luke Mader Smith Excellence in Sociology Award

Dr. Smith was a professor of Sociology and Chairman of the Department at Alfred University from 1958 to 1968. He was noted for his unusual intellectual power, rigorous discipline and broad ranging interests. Sociology was with him a passion, but he was a humanitarian withal. The Sociology faculty believes that he would be proud of the graduating senior to whom this award is given.

Dorothy M. Towe '64 Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Dr. George Towe, AU Professor of Physics, Emeritus, in memory of his wife, Dorothy M. Towe. Dorothy received degrees from Alfred University in '64 and '67 and was an Instructor of Psychology and Director of the AU Counseling Center. This award is presented to a student who demonstrates proficiency in the study of Psychology or School Psychology.

The Lelia E. Tupper Literary Award

This award pays tribute to Dr. Tupper for her years of devoted teaching as a member of the English Department from 1926 to 1969 and is awarded to a junior or senior English major who has demonstrated excellence in criticism and analysis of literature.

Wit and Wisdom Student Award

The Phi Beta Kappa Wit and Wisdom Student Award recognizes excellence in student writing (either scholarly or creative) and oral presentation, in the spirit of academic achievement represented by Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest honor society.

Ann Wood Stopper Award

This award is given to an outstanding student who has shown commitment to the study of Performing Arts.

DESCRIPTIONS OF AWARDS FOR STUDENTS IN THE SCHOOL OF ART AND DESIGN

Alfred Research Grants for Undergraduate Students

Alfred Research Grants for Undergraduate Students fund research projects conducted by students from across the university and their faculty sponsors. Projects are funded after rigorous review of proposals written by the students. Results are presented publicly.

Anderson Ranch Art Center Partnership Program

Anderson Ranch Art Center, located in Snowmass, Colorado, is an internationally recognized art center with excellent facilities. Anderson Ranch partners with Alfred to award scholarships to undergraduate and/or graduate students working in each of the following areas: ceramic art, sculpture dimensional studies, drawing, painting and photography, and expanded media.

Art Makers Apprenticeship

The Art Makers Apprentice Program is a unique collaboration to empower, inspire and celebrate the next generation of art makers between UAP | Urban Art Projects and Alfred University's National Casting Center Foundry, School of Art and Design at the New York State College of Ceramics.

Art History Award

This award recognizes excellence in art history courses through highly engaged and informed participation in discussions as well as an enthusiastic commitment to art historical inquiry, analysis, presentation and writing.

Artist in Business Award

This award is presented to a senior student who is in both the art and business programs, and who exemplifies leadership in partnering art and business through involvement in an entrepreneurial venture, or student activities that furthers entrepreneurship and their field of knowledge or interest.

AU Libraries Community Impact Award

This award acknowledges and celebrates undergraduate or graduate students who have demonstrated exemplary leadership in promoting the Libraries' values on campus and in the community with clear and positive impacts as the result of these efforts. Some of the Libraries' core values are a commitment to anti-racism and anti-oppression, support for intellectual and cultural diversity, the free and open pursuit of knowledge, and a passion for sustainability. As part of an ongoing dedication to diversity, equity, inclusion and accessibility, the Alfred University Libraries seek to empower students to explore diversity issues, expand scholarly conversations beyond the historically dominant voices and perspectives, and inspire others to advance social justice.

AU Libraries Outstanding Researcher Award

This award recognizes student researchers at the undergraduate and graduate level who have demonstrated excellence, innovation, and an understanding of information literacy and the research process as part of an original course-related research project, in any format or medium including creative work, which utilizes AU Libraries collections, resources, and services.

Bortz Family Award

This award is presented to the undergraduate student who has done the most during the past year to enhance Jewish Life at Alfred.

The College of Ceramics Endowed Performance Fund

This fund was created in honor of the College of Ceramics Centennial and to further enhance the educational opportunities for students.

The Corning Museum of Glass Arts Scholarship

This scholarship covers tuition and board to attend a one- or two-week summer session at "The Studio" in the Corning Museum of Glass.

It is awarded to an outstanding student working with glass within the Sculpture/Dimensional Studies Division. The scholarship is a gift from the Corning Museum of Glass.

Val Cushing Award

The Val Cushing Award will be given to the ceramic student whose work best exemplifies the function and spirit of Val Cushing's oeuvre.

The Lisa Elwell Ceramic Artist Endowed Encouragement Award

This award, presented to a senior art student, has been created through the generosity of family and friends, as a tribute to Lisa, her ideas, and her vision as an artist. An exceptional student and artist, Lisa had instinct for both clay and glaze; this whimsical and playful energy appears throughout her work.

Excellence in Global Studies Award

This award is given to an outstanding Global Studies major or minor whose scholarship serves as an example to others.

Foundations Award

Awarded to a first-year foundations students for excellence in creativity and collaboration.

Fred H. Gertz Award

The Fred H. Gertz Award for Excellence in Writing was established through the generosity of alumni and friends in recognition of Dr. Gertz's teaching of clear and cogent writing to generations of students and his tireless devotion to the University.

The Stephen John Hill Memorial Scholarship in Art and Design

This award, established in memory of Stephen John Hill, a graduate of the Bachelor of Fine Arts Program in 1985, is presented to deserving international students enrolled in the School of Art and Design.

Inclusion Diversity Equity & Access (IDEA) in the Arts Award

This award is given to a student who has provided leadership in the areas of IDEA through the arts.

Junior Functional Design Award

This award is presented to a ceramic or three-dimensional student showing excellence in concept and execution in functional design.

Korean Alumni Association of Alfred University Award

This award is given annually to a senior or graduate student who is an outstanding international or minority student within the College of Ceramics.

Helene F. Lumia '13 Award

This award is presented to an undergraduate student in the School of Art and Design who excels in the experimental use of glass in art.

Paul "Vickers" Lyon '00 Scholarship

This scholarship supports and encourages students pursuing an undergraduate degree in expanded media with preference for students who demonstrate imaginative thinking and a commitment to the arts with a focus on video, sound, and electronic art.

Rick McLay Memorial Award in Graphic Design

The Rick McLay Memorial Award in Graphic Design serves to honor the memory of Rick McLay by celebrating the gifts of a new generation of designers.

The Louis Mendez '52 Award

This award is presented to a full-time student in the School of Art and Design to support travel and related expenses for educational purposes. The educational travel is intended to complement studio work and studies and to connect students to art professionals and the art world in ways essential for developing personal and professional maturity. Examples of fundable opportunities for the award include: master workshops; participation in prestigious art/media festivals; participation in notable exhibitions; apprenticeships and internships.

Marcianne Mapel Miller Scholarship at the Haystack Mountain School of Crafts

This scholarship is awarded to an outstanding junior or first semester senior in ceramic art. It provides full tuition, as well as living expenses, for the recipient to attend a summer session of their choice at one of America's premier art and craft schools. It is awarded in memory of Marcianne Mapel Miller '55, who was an outstanding graduate in ceramic art.

Daniel Joseph Murphy II Memorial Award for Creativity

This award encourages and supports students and faculty who pursue creativity and innovation enthusiastically, vigorously and courageously, as Dan Murphy '91 did in his student and professional life.

Penland Higher Education Partnership Scholarship

Penland School of Crafts is an international center for education in North Carolina dedicated to creative practice. This scholarship enables talented students to attend Penland School of Crafts. Penland School shares the cost of tuition, dormitory housing and meals with Alfred. This is a full scholarship with no work-study requirement and enables students to focus completely on their creative studies.

Peters Valley Craft Education Center Summer Workshop Scholarship

Peters Valley, a dynamic workshop center located in Layton, New Jersey, offers four partial scholarships to students studying ceramic art at Alfred University. These awards are given to outstanding sophomores or juniors. Additional funding may be provided by the Marcianne Mapel Miller Fund for Ceramic Art.

The Pilchuck Glass School Summer Workshop

The Pilchuck Glass School was started in 1971 by artist Dale Chihuly in Stanwood, WA. This award covers half the tuition and board to attend a two-and-a-half-week summer session. The award is given to an outstanding junior working in glass within the Sculpture/Dimensional Studies Division.

Natasha Goldowski Renner Prize in Physics

This award, established in memory of Dr. Natasha Goldowski Renner, assistant professor of physics from 1956-1962, is presented to a student or students who have shown excellence and promise in the study of physics.

The Howard Jon Schnabolk Memorial Award

To recognize and to encourage diligent student creativity in the performing and productive arts that comprise the ensemble of theater, an annual award has been established in memory of Lt. Howard Jon Schnabolk, class of 1965, who lost his life in Vietnam, August 3, 1967, at the age of twenty-three. As an undergraduate, he was Theater Lighting Director, President of the Footlight Club, and Chairman of its Executive Committee.

Senior Painting Award

The Senior Painting Award is provided to a senior student whose works in painting exemplify a strong creative drive, curiosity and conceptual development.

Betsy Smith Memorial Corning Section American Chemical Society Outstanding Senior Award

This award is given annually to the outstanding senior student in the field of chemistry.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers Outstanding Student Award

DESCRIPTIONS OF AWARDS FOR STUDENTS IN THE KAZUO INAMORI SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

Advancement of Women in Engineering Award

The recipient of this award must be a junior or senior female enrolled in the Kazuo Inamori School of Engineering who has demonstrated promise in her field. She must have high scholastic achievements as well as being active within engineering outside of normal class work and activities. She must demonstrate leadership, promote the field of engineering and encourage the growth and advancement of the profession. This is the first award to be developed and presented by the unified School of Engineering.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers Outstanding Student Award

This award is given annually to an undergraduate student in the Mechanical Engineering Program in recognition of scholarship, professional activities, and community service.

Award for Outstanding CEMS Junior

This award is presented to an outstanding junior by the faculty of the Kazuo Inamori School of Engineering. This award is based upon scholarship and service to the school and community.

Award for Outstanding CEMS Senior

This award is presented to an outstanding senior by the faculty of the Kazuo Inamori School of Engineering. The award is based upon scholarship and service to the school and community.

Award for Academic Excellence in Mechanical Engineering

This award is given annually to the graduating senior with the highest overall grade point average in the mechanical engineering program.

Award for Professional Achievement in Mechanical Engineering

This award is given annually to a graduating senior(s) in recognition of service and leadership in the mechanical engineering program.

Award for Outstanding Renewable Energy Engineering Senior

This award is presented to an outstanding senior by the faculty of the renewable energy engineering program. The award is in recognition of scholarship, professional activities and community service.

The College of Ceramics Endowed Performance Fund

This fund was created in honor of the College of Ceramics Centennial and to further enhance the educational opportunities for students.

Eastern College Athletic Conference Merit Medal Award

This medal is awarded by the Eastern College Athletic Conference to a senior female and male student for outstanding athletic ability.

Engineers in Business Award

This award is presented to a senior student(s) who is in both the engineering and business program, and who exemplifies leadership in partnering engineering and business through involvement in an entrepreneurial venture, or student activities that further entrepreneurship and their field of knowledge or interest.

General Electric Excellence in Glass Science Award

Established by the General Electric Company, this award is given to an undergraduate student for demonstrating excellence in Glass Science and Technology.

Fred H. Gertz Award

The Fred H. Gertz Award for Excellence in Writing was established through the generosity of alumni and friends in recognition of Dr. Gertz's teaching of clear and cogent writing to generations of students and his tireless devotion to the University.

The Dr. Edward Giess

Professional Development Award

The Dr. Edward Giess BS '51, MS '52, Ph.D. '58 Professional Development Award supports the professional development of graduate students in ceramic engineering, glass science, and materials science and engineering at Alfred University by supporting their attendance and presentations at professional conferences. The award is established in honor of Edward Giess by his family. Dr. Giess was extremely proud to have received the first-ever Ph.D. from AU in ceramic engineering. He leaves a lasting legacy of professionalism and expertise that inspires future generations of AU graduates.

The Dr. Richard C. Martin Outstanding Senior Scholarship

This award is presented to the outstanding senior member of Keramos in the College of Ceramics and is based upon scholarship, service to Keramos on both local and national levels, and citizenship.

The Dr. Richard C. Martin Outstanding Teaching Assistant Award

This award is presented to a graduate student teaching assistant for outstanding contributions to undergraduate laboratory instruction.

J. Steven Mayes Scholarship Award

The J. Steven Mayes Scholarship Award was established in memory of his efforts to educate young people in the basic principles of both engineering and life. Dr. Mayes was a member of the mechanical engineering program until his death in June 2008 and through his tireless efforts both inside and outside the classroom was able to lead his students toward success in both their professional and personal lives. Dr. Mayes was a "bridge builder" who taught his students that you must "build bridges," make connections, in both their professional and personal lives to be successful in both worlds.

The scholarship award is given annually to an engineering student who has embraced the message from Dr. Mayes and who is a “bridge builder.”

The John F. McMahon Achievement Award

During his tenure, Dean John Francis McMahon led the New York State College of Ceramics to consider the vital needs of industry and promoted the use of ceramic materials to industry throughout the United States. In recognition of his contribution to the field of ceramics, this award is presented annually to the student who has brought recognition to the College through exceptional performance in the College's cooperative education program.

Harry J. Odink Memorial Award in Ceramic Engineering

This award is presented to a student in good academic standing who has shown outstanding ability in experimentation in laboratory courses.

Scholes Scholar Award

This award is sponsored by the Ceramic Association of New York in honor of Dr. Samuel R. Scholes, a faculty member from 1932 to 1952 and Dean of the New York State College of Ceramics from 1946 to 1948.

Curtis E. Scott '72 Scholarship Endowment

The colleagues of Curtis E. Scott, The General Electric Foundation, his friends from greater Cleveland, and his many classmates and professors have established this endowed scholarship fund. A proud alumnus with deep professional and private roots, Curt was awarded all of his degrees in ceramics from Alfred: his B.S. in 1972, his M.S. in 1975 and his Ph.D. in 1977. While a student, Curt was a founding member of Alpha Chi Rho fraternity. He met his wife, the former Judith Kovalsky at Alfred. Curt had a long and significant career with GE Lighting where his contributions resulted in numerous publications and 45 patents. His ingenuity and dedication to inventing and developing new silica, and sapphire materials led to the creation of numerous new lamp designs. He was Counselor of the Northern Ohio section of the American Ceramic Society and was elected a Fellow of the Society. His professional and personal contributions will be greatly missed.

The Jim R. Tinklepaugh Memorial Scholarship

This award, established in memory of Jim R. Tinklepaugh, class of 1943, and a faculty member of the College of Ceramics for 39 years, is presented to a junior student in ceramic engineering based upon academic excellence.

Milton A. Tuttle Award

The Milton A. Tuttle Award honors a senior ceramic engineering student who excels, just as “Doc” Tuttle did, in academics as well as athletics. Dr. Tuttle, a 1941 alumnus of Alfred University, taught at the New York State College of Ceramics for 35 years. An athlete himself throughout his life, he coached three AU cross-country teams to New York State championships.

Undergraduate Tutor Award

The award is presented to an outstanding tutor by the faculty of the Kazuo Inamori School of Engineering and is based upon supporting the academic mission of the school by peer tutoring with a high level of skill and enthusiasm.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

OWEN NELSON

KNOX VANRENSELAAR

The Marlin Miller Award Tile is given each year to the Outstanding Senior Students as a distinctive, tangible recognition of achievement.

The Marlin Miller Award Tile and its presentation box were conceived of and designed by Professor of Ceramic Art, Wayne Higby. Each tile is handmade by Professor Higby from the local Alfred terra cotta roof tile clay, and depicts the Village of Alfred in its surrounding landscape featuring words from the Alfred University Alma Mater as foreground. The award tile is presented in its own unique box handmade by Don Kaake of Angelica, New York, from local cherry wood. Each boxed tile is housed for protection in a quilted cloth bag made by Pat Kaake. The bag is purple with a gold ribbon closure and represents the Alfred University colors.

THE ABIGAIL ALLEN AWARD

Abigail Allen, a founding mother of Alfred University, dedicated her life's work to advancing the cause of coeducation and encouraging women to pursue higher education. In so doing, she contributed immeasurably to improving the quality of women's lives on our campus and in the wider community. The Abigail Allen Award is presented each year to a faculty/staff member who has contributed to our campus and our community by improving the quality of women's lives today and whose exceptional efforts deserve recognition in this vein.

Bethany C. Johnson

Dr. Bethany Johnson, Associate Professor of Psychology, joined the Alfred University faculty in 2011. Since her arrival, Beth has been an energetic, highly-engaged advocate for diversity and inclusivity in the Alfred community. For over five years, she has enriched and supported the Women's and Gender Studies Program by regularly offering courses in the "Psychology of Gender" and "Human Sexuality." She has also been a frequent guest speaker in our Women and Gender in Society course and remains one of the best-informed faculty on our campus about issues concerning gender and sexuality.

Beth's innovative pedagogy focuses on the importance of safe spaces for individuals from all walks of life and many of us know we can turn to Beth to learn best practices for all types of interactions with students who are at risk of being "othered." She continues to promote and design programming on campus and in the larger community in support of the LGBTQ community and is now the Director of the Alfred University Social Justice Studies program where she helps to build an impactful curriculum that provides students with the tools to develop their own informed voice in a complex discourse. On a personal level, Beth's generous interactions with students, staff, and her faculty colleagues all reflect a deep and longstanding commitment to equality, fairness, and compassionate humanism.

Our campus community recognizes Beth as a vocal and courageous spokesperson for diversity, equity, and inclusion which she models for her students and colleagues every day in the classroom and beyond. In this way, Beth embodies the spirit of Abigail Allen by being "radical, radical to the core."
